

CONTRACT LAW

Our dedicated team of civil and commercial contract law specialists provides valuable legal advice to clients for all types of business. Local and cross-border situations are the daily business of our lawyers who provide their expertise in advisory or transactional matters. Our clients include traditional businesses and companies focused on new technologies.

Key areas of our specialization include:

- > Agreements: drafting and advising on commercial agreements.
- > General Terms and Conditions: drafting and advising on general terms and conditions for traditional businesses and new technology companies.
- > Consumer law: consumer law becomes more and more important. Having up-to-date agreements in line with the law and the latest case-law is a key factor to avoid disputes.
