- > the Trade association for the entire community of the UK's insolvency and restructuring professionals (R3)

Our firm and lawyers have been active members of these organizations for years, contributing also as key players in special legal committees.

These memberships allow us to gain valuable insights into the unique challenges and opportunities within the Luxembourg legal and business environment.

In addition, we take pride in several of our lawyers who have held prominent positions within local institutions and the Luxembourg Bar Association, further solidifying our firm's standing as a trusted authority in the legal community.

Q&A

FAQ: How we can help

- How does your firm stay informed about the latest developments in the legal and business sectors?

Our involvement in seminars, conferences, and networking events organized by these organizations ensures that we stay up-to-date with the latest trends and developments in the legal and business sectors. This allows us to provide our clients with innovative solutions and proactive guidance.

We are also highly regarded for the quality of our interventions as lecturers at universities and professional training organizations, as well as for our role as speakers at conferences on crucial topics, both in Luxembourg and abroad. Additionally, we provide customized trainings to clients in-house, ensuring that they receive tailored guidance to meet their specific needs.

- Are your lawyers affiliated with any international associations?

Yes, our lawyers are members of various international associations, including the International Bar Association (IBA), the Union Internationale des Avocats (UIA), R3 (Association of Business Recovery Professionals), and INSOL (International Association of Restructuring, Insolvency, and Bankruptcy Professionals).

- Are you part of any global networks?

We are the Luxembourg affiliated member of MULTILAW, a global network of independent law firms with 11,000 lawyers and 90 member firms.
